

Griffith, G. (1904) The Stolen Submarine

Griffith, G. (1904) *The Stolen Submarine - serialised in 1904 in Dundee Evening Telegraph. [Other sydications to be checked]

Published in book form as The Stolen Submarine: A Tale of the Russo-Japanese War by by F. V. White & Co., Ltd. in London.

An advanced French super-submarine is stolen and sold to Russia.

"THE STOLEN SUBMARINE."

THE SERIAL STORY FOR THE TIME !

By George Griffith.

New and Exciting Tale of Modern Warfare.

A COLOSSAL BOOM BY AN EMINENT NOVELIST.

This novel, which been running as a serial in a great London Daily is creating an extraordinary interest amongst all classes of the community in the Old Country, every instalment being eagerly devoured and excitedly discussed in a manner recalling the sensational successes of Mr. Wilkie Collins and the earlier times of Charles Dickens.

Auckland Star, Volume XXXV, Issue 161, 7 July 1904, Page 3

Other posts of possible interest:

Griffith, G. \(1901\) *The Raid of Le Vengeur*

Griffith, G. \(1907\) *The world peril of 1910*