

Headon Hill (1903) Seaward for The Foe, Ward
Lock & Co, London

SEAWARD FOR THE FOE

BY HEADON HILL

AUTHOR OF
'THE QUEEN OF HEAVEN,' 'GARDEN,' 'IN A MAN'S REIGNS,' ETC.

ILLUSTRATED BY HENRY AUSTIN

LONDON
WARD, LOCK & CO., LIMITED
NEW YORK AND MELBOURNE
1903

Headon Hill was the pseudonym of Francis Edward Grainger.
Available online (USA access only) at Hathitrust

SEAWARD FOR THE FOE

	PAGE
I. HOW THE 'VENGEUR' CAME TO BOURNEMOUTH .	7
II. THE KEY OF THE MINE SHED . . .	26
III. THE WIRELESS TELEGRAM	45
IV. THE LENS OF THE SEARCH-LIGHT . . .	64
V. THE TROOPSHIP AND THE 'DESTROYER' .	82
VI. HOW THE 'KALMUCK' COALED AT BRIKHAM .	101
VII. HOW MARGATE SAVED SHEERNESS . . .	120
VIII. THE BATTLE OF THE BOYS	139
IX. THE PERIL OF LONDON	159
X. HOW ELLA RHYS STOPPED THE COAL STRIKE	178

"The bows of the excursion steamer crashed into the Vengeur amidships.
Seaward for the Foe [Page 24]

Other posts of possible interest:

Wilson, H.A. & White, A. \(1898\) When War breaks out

Jane, F.T. \(1895\), Blake of the "Rattlesake"

Stevenson, P. L. \(1899\) How The Jubilee Fleet Escaped Destruction and the Battle of Ushant

Anonymous \(1883\) The Story of the battle of Port Said

Edwards, H. \(1895\) Britain in Arms